MCI Mail. The personal computer application you've been waiting for.

MCI Mail, the nation's new postal system, provides a fast, reliable, and affordable way to send correspondence with your very own personal computer, or practically any other communicating device.*

Now you can send mail to anyone, anywhere in the continental U.S.—even if they don't have the same equipment, or if they don't have any equipment at all! All you do is provide the name, address, and zip code of the recipient, and MCI Mail delivers your letter in writing in four hours, overnight by noon, or by the next day.

Or, your letter is delivered instantly when the recipient has a device and is also registered to send and receive MCI Mail electronically.

With MCI Mail, your own computer becomes your "personal post office."

*Personal computer, word processor, electronic typewriter, work station, data terminal, telex machine, etc., equipped with a modem. See Service Guide for areas served, delivery times and limitations on liabilities.

The fast, low-cost way to send mail to anyone, anywhere.

MCI Mail combines computer speed with the confidence of printed communications, at price advantages you expect from MCI.

Your correspondence, which you create on your personal computer or other communicating device (create messages online or submit already created text from your files), is sent electronically to an MCI Mail postal center near the addressee. At the center, your letter is laser printed, placed in an MCI Mail envelope and delivered according to the option you choose.

$1 Instant Letter—When "now" is almost too late, send your messages instantly to other MCI Mail customers in an electronic form compatible with their particular device. They can read the message at their convenience from their "electronic mailbox."

$2 MCI Letter—For less critical arrival, select our economical delivery via U.S. Mail. MCI Mail speeds up the long-distance part of mail handling, generally enabling following-day delivery in most areas of the U.S.

$6 Overnight Letter—MCI Mail will hand deliver your correspondence by noon of the next day in more than 20,000 cities and towns—at 30-50% less than air couriers.

$25 Four-Hour Letter—Within four hours, MCI Mail will hand deliver your correspondence in major cities across America. This remarkable speed is priced well below the $70-115 usually charged for this service—when it's available.

Prices are for the first MCI Mail "ounce." An MCI Mail "ounce" is about 7,500 characters, which usually means 3-5 pages. Additional "ounces" cost $1.00 each, no matter which delivery option you select.

MCI Mail—bold, professional, yet personal.

Your MCI Mail is laser printed on high quality bond paper. MCI Mail is then placed in an eye-catching orange envelope that assures instant recognition and prompt handling on the receiving end. MCI Mail will even personalize your correspondence by creating a laser printed replica of your letterhead and signature. A nominal once-a-year fee registers both for unlimited usage.

Put your computer and MCI Mail to work for you.

Every MCI Mail customer receives a complimentary subscription to Dow Jones News/Retrieval®. At Dow Jones' regular rates, you can have the latest stock quotations . . . highlights from the Wall Street Journal by 7 a.m. . . . major airlines schedules . . . home shopping . . . current motion picture and television reviews . . . and more.

As your needs grow, MCI Mail is ready to help you with advanced services such as distribution to selected mailing lists . . . on-line storage of files and mail . . . complete handling of volume mail . . . and translation between non-compatible word processors with imbedded editing codes.

Call 1-800-MCI-2255 TOLL FREE (Washington, D.C. call 833-8484). Or fill out and mail your Free Registration Form today! You can also register via your personal computer. See instructions on reverse side.

AN INTRODUCTORY GUIDE TO BEGIN USING

THE SOURCE [sm]

AMERICA'S INFORMATION UTILITY

When you purchased your membership to THE SOURCE, these five items were given to you.

Write your numbers in the blanks provided here for handy access when signing-on to THE SOURCE. (Use pencil, as you will want to change your password periodically.)

(1) Your local telephone number _____.
This number is for the _____ network.

(2) Your I.D. Number: _____

(3) Your Password: _____

(4) Your Computer's Host System Number:

(5) Your Terminal Identifier Code: _____

Introduction

This guide will help you sign-on and begin using THE SOURCE. Keep it by your terminal for easy reference.

To connect your hardware with the computers of THE SOURCE in McLean, Virginia, you need to dial— usually with a local call—into a telecommunications network. The network to use will depend on where you call from, and the quality of telecommunications service in your area.

As you will see, the sign-on procedure varies, depending on the telecommunications network you use.

Please follow the instructions on the following pages—depending on what network you use— exactly as they are illustrated. Following these instructions are descriptions of some services on THE SOURCE you'll want to try right away.

Enjoy your sessions with THE SOURCE!

SOURCENET

In cities where it is available, SOURCENET—our own telecommunications network — is the easiest, fastest, and most reliable way to dial up THE SOURCE. SOURCE-NET is being expanded into major metropolitan areas east of the Mississippi.

TELENET, TYMNET & UNINET

These are other networks whose lines are leased by THE SOURCE. They involve different sign-on procedures and, depending on how many people use them in your area, will vary in the quality of their performance. In some cities, more than one network is available. Others may be serviced only by one network. In each case, as with SOURCENET, the cost of using any of these networks is included in your hourly usage fee for THE SOURCE.

WATS

For members accessing THE SOURCE from an area not covered by a telecommunications network, STC provides incoming WATS lines, at a surcharge of 25¢ per-minute of use. This will be billed to you on your monthly invoice for your hourly usage fees; generally, the cost will be less than your expense of dialing long-distance to the nearest area serviced by one of the other networks. Any member from any area may access THE SOURCE through WATS; what's more, WATS connections are extremely reliable.

Connection Problems—When using one of the telecommunication networks, you may occasionally be unable to sign-on, experience disconnects, line interference, or receive "error" messages from the network. These are caused by failures in the telecommunications network, and STC has no control over such occurrences. (You can find complete explanations for various error messages in your User's Manual.) In most cases, when this happens you should hang up and re-dial in 5 or 10 minutes.

In an effort to reduce sign-on problems, STC is constantly working to provide alternative ways to dial-up THE SOURCE, as with SOURCENET.

The Five Items You Need to Sign-On

When you purchased your membership to THE SOURCE, these five items were given to you over the telephone and/or indicated on the literature sent you. There is space to enter your numbers on the inside front cover of this booklet. You'll need to have them handy before beginning to sign-on.

(1) Your Local Telephone Number—The local numbers used by the telecommunication networks change frequently. An up-to-date list is available on THE SOURCE by typing ACCESS at Command Level. This list can be useful if you plan to travel and use THE SOURCE from another metropolitan area.

(2) Your I.D. Number—Your I.D. is a two- or three-letter prefix followed by four or three digits. The I.D. is how you will be known by other members, particularly when you use POST, Chat, and SourceMail (explained later). If you misplace or forget your I.D. number, call STC Customer Support (800) 336-3330. In Virginia (703) 734-7540.

(3) Your Password—Your password is your key to signing on to THE SOURCE. It gives you absolute ownership of your account. When you were first assigned your I.D., you were also assigned your password, a combination of letters and numbers six characters long. If you forget your password, call Customer Support, and a new one will be issued. You can change your password (and you should, regularly, to ensure security) by typing at Command Level CPW, a space, and then your current password. Then follow the system prompts.

(4) Your Computer's Host System Number—After you've made the call and entered your Terminal Identifier Code into one of the telecommunication networks, you must tell the network to direct your call to the mainframe computers (or systems) of THE SOURCE. Each network uses slightly different system codes, which are described in the sign-on procedure for each network.

(5) Your Terminal Identifier Code—This tells the network what kind of hardware you are using. If you are dialing Telenet, refer to page 6 for your code. If you are dialing Tymnet, refer to page 8. If your type of hardware is not listed, the identifier D1 will generally be sufficient for any personal computer or terminal calling through Telenet; the letter A will be sufficient for Tymnet.

Getting Started

Now that you have successfully signed-on to THE SOURCE, a world of information and communication services awaits you.

Where should you start?

There are two ways to use THE SOURCE. The first is with the Menu approach, whereby services may be requested by simply typing their corresponding numbers. The second is by typing in Direct Commands for THE SOURCE to execute.

New users feel most comfortable with the Menu approach. Here's how it works. Your first menu will appear just after you sign-on, and will look like this:*

* The Menus of THE SOURCE change as the service itself grows and changes. Current menus may not be just as shown here

> WELCOME TO THE SOURCE
> 1 USING THE SOURCE
> 2 TODAY
> 3 BUSINESS UPDATE
> 4 THE SOURCE MAIN MENU
> 5 WHAT'S NEW
> 6 COMMAND LEVEL
> Enter item number or HELP

THE SOURCE is now "prompting" you to type one of the corresponding numbers. To go to the Main Menu of THE SOURCE, you would type number 4, hit the Return key, and you will then see this:

> THE SOURCE MAIN MENU
> 1 NEWS AND REFERENCE RESOURCES
> 2 BUSINESS/FINANCIAL MARKETS
> 3 CATALOGUE SHOPPING
> 4 HOME AND LEISURE
> 5 EDUCATION AND CAREER
> 6 MAIL AND COMMUNICATIONS
> 7 CREATING AND COMPUTING
> 8 SOURCE*PLUS
> Enter item number or HELP

If you wanted NEWS AND REFERENCE RESOURCES, you would type number 1, then hit your Return key. This would activate the next menu level, and so on.

The alternative to using the Menu is to activate services by direct Commands. This can only be done from COMMAND LEVEL (option number 6 in your first menu).

Command Level is indicated by the arrow →, which always appears at the left margin of your screen. At this point, you can enter any of the commands listed in the Command Guide. (Command Guides are updated periodically and sent at no charge to all members).

To get to Command Level from any place within THE SOURCE, simply type QUIT when the system pauses, or prompts you for a response, the Command arrow will automatically appear at the left of your screen.

To get to the Main Menu from Command Level, just type MENU when you see the arrow.

> → MENU
> THE SOURCE MAIN MENU
> 1 NEWS AND REFERENCE RESOURCES
> 2 BUSINESS/FINANCIAL MARKETS
> _____Rest of Main Menu
> will appear

There are three other important tools you need to know. To stop THE SOURCE at any time, just press your CONTROL key at the same time as you press your S key. To restart THE SOURCE, press your CONTROL key simultaneously with your Q key. To interrupt a program and return to the primary prompt or to return to Command Level, press your CONTROL key simultaneously with your P key or press the BREAK key.

When you want to end your session on THE SOURCE, go to Command Level and type OFF. It's as simple as that!

The best way to learn is by doing — so here are some services on THE SOURCE you can start using right away. They will help you become quickly familiar with the system.

Main Menu Category	Direct Command	Description
NEWS AND REFERENCE	UPI	The complete UPI news wire
BUSINESS/FINANCIAL	CONTENTS	Article abstracts from business magazines
MAIL AND COMMUNICATIONS	POST	Electronic bulletin boards with over 80 categories
NEWS AND REFERENCE	BYLINES	Feature stories from 75 columnists
HOME AND LEISURE	GAMES	Dozens of electronic games
EDUCATION & CAREERS	EMPLOY	"Career Network" for finding jobs or job applicants
TRAVEL & DINING	USROOM	Guide to the best accommodations nationwide

In addition to these, you'll want to try some of the special services packaged by THE SOURCE for its members. These three—TODAY, BUSINESS UPDATE and WHAT'S NEW—can be activated from the first Menu screen:

> WELCOME TO THE SOURCE
> 1 USING THE SOURCE
> 2 TODAY
> 3 BUSINESS UPDATE
> 4 THE SOURCE MAIN MENU
> 5 WHAT'S NEW
> 6 COMMAND LEVEL
> Enter Item Number or HELP

If you select TODAY and press number 2, you will receive a timely series of news and features relating to seasonal and current interests.

Number 3, BUSINESS UPDATE, will give you a special electronic business magazine, updated 40 times during the day. This includes business news, market activities, a special Washington letter, and STOCKCHECK, for quick quotes on specific stocks.

WHAT'S NEW, number 5, will tell you what has changed lately on THE SOURCE, and describes new services you can use.

To request any of these three services from Command Level, simply type TODAY, BIZDATE or NEW.

TERMS and CONDITIONS

1. Getting on THE SOURCE℠ services.

You, the person or organization signing this agreement are the SUBSCRIBER. The number assigned by Source Telecomputing Corporation (STC) which identifies you as a SUBSCRIBER is your IDENTIFICATION NUMBER and must be used with a PASSWORD selected by you in order for you to access THE SOURCE. You may change your PASSWORD at any time.

2. Using THE SOURCE℠ services; Rights and Responsibilities of the Subscriber.

You may access THE SOURCE services from as many terminals as you choose at no additional charge.

You are responsible for the confidentiality and the use of your IDENTIFICATION NUMBER and PASSWORD, including all charges to your account and any violation of this agreement by anyone using your account (any USER). You must immediately notify STC if your IDENTIFICATION NUMBER or PASSWORD is lost or stolen, or if you find that someone has unauthorized access to them. You remain responsible for all use of THE SOURCE services through your account until we hear from you.

All information and software placed by STC on THE SOURCE services is and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of STC or STC's information suppliers, and you warrant that you shall not publish, broadcast, retransmit, or otherwise reproduce the information or software in any media. Any violation of this restriction is an infringement of copyright or proprietary rights in the information and software.

STC may review any material stored in files or programs to which all Subscribers have access (for example, PARTICIPATE and POST) and will remove any material which STC, in its sole discretion, believes may be unlawful or otherwise objectionable. STC may remove or reject such material without notice to you and may, in its sole discretion, reject any advertising material, commercial or personal, placed by you in these public files or programs.

STC reserves the right to purge any information for which you do not incur storage charges (for example, MAIL and POST) 7 days after the input. STC reserves the right to change or remove any of THE SOURCE services.

3. Disclaimer of Warranties; Limitation of Liability; Indemnification.

You expressly acknowledge and agree that the use of any information or advertisements appearing on THE SOURCE or any contained in its products or services as well as the storage of your information is at your sole risk, and you understand that STC offers NO WARRANTIES AS TO MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE for THE SOURCE services or any information, programs, or products. STC and its information suppliers shall not be liable for any direct, incidental or consequential damages caused by the mistakes, omissions, interruptions, deletion of files, errors, defects, or delays in operation or transmission or any failure of performance caused by events beyond STC's control. Such events shall include, but not be limited to, Acts of God, communications line failure, theft, destruction or unauthorized access to or use of your records, files or programs, or unauthorized access to THE SOURCE records, programs, or services.

You hereby agree to indemnify and hold STC harmless from and against any claim, loss, or liability (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising from the violation by you or any USER of any third party rights, including copyright infringement, privacy or proprietary rights. This indemnification obligation shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

4. Paying for THE SOURCE℠ Services.

You agree to pay STC for the time you or any USER access THE SOURCE services, the data you store on THE SOURCE computers, and certain monthly minimum obligations (including account maintenance and minimum usage charges). All bills from STC are due and payable when you receive them.

You agree that you have read and hereby accept the current SCHEDULE OF RATES AND FEES, which contains the current prices and billing terms. STC reserves the right to change the rates, fees and terms listed on this SCHEDULE upon 30 days prior written notice, but you may terminate this Agreement in writing as of the effective date of the change.

STC reserves the right to require credit cards and to impose a late charge of 1½% per month on all unpaid balances past due thirty days. STC may require business accounts to advance a non-interest bearing deposit which may be applied against all past due balances.

5. Terms and Termination; Suspension.

This Agreement is effective from the date of acceptance by STC of a copy signed by you, and it may be terminated by either party without cause upon thirty days after receipt of written notice of termination.

STC shall have the right to terminate this Agreement without notice and in its sole discretion, in the event that you:

(i) have breached this Agreement in any way (including, but not limited to failure to make timely payment) and have not cured such breach within thirty days from the date of the breach (in the case of failure to make timely payment, STC shall have the right to suspend your access to THE SOURCE services without notice until the outstanding balance has been fully paid); or

(ii) have used THE SOURCE services for unlawful or improper purposes or in any way which STC, in its sole discretion, considers jeopardizes the security system of THE SOURCE services; or

(iii) have interfered or threatened to interfere with any other person's privacy or proprietary right or use of THE SOURCE services.

6. Miscellaneous.

This Agreement is subject to acceptance by STC at its home office, may not be assigned by you, and shall be governed by the law of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Any notice or other communication hereunder shall be in writing, which includes THE SOURCE Electronic Mail, Telex, TWX, telegram and certified, registered, or first class mail.
